Master's Program: Peace and Conflict Studies (PCS) Course Graduate School of Global Studies Tokyo University of Foreign Studies (TUFS)

Admission Information

The Peace and Conflict Studies (PCS) Course is an interdisciplinary research and study program at Tokyo University of Foreign Studies (TUFS), created to attract international students and researchers at the graduate level who are interested in exploring diverse topics that fall within the emerging discipline of PCS. In the 2004 academic year, TUFS began to offer a concentration in PCS within its 2-year Master of Arts Degree (International Studies) Program. English is the primary language of instruction for all courses within the PCS curriculum. Outstanding international and Japanese applicants are invited to apply for the Master of Arts Degree Program, PCS Course commencing in the 2024 academic year.

We would also like to note that since 2020, "PCS Course to Foster Professionals for Post-conflict Peacebuilding" within the Peace and Conflict Studies Course of the Graduate School of Global Studies, Tokyo University of Foreign Studies has been designated as "Special Program that conducts priority placements for MEXT scholarship students" (SP) for international students from conflict-affected countries worldwide. Outstanding applicants from countries that are currently, or have recently experienced major conflict are invited to apply for this program. Applicants who are interested in also applying for the SP-MEXT scholarship should read the details on pages 13-16.

Points for Application

<Academic Background>

Applicants for the PCS Course are expected to have an undergraduate degree in a relevant academic field in the social sciences (such as political science, international relations, economics, sociology, or anthropology) or humanities, and ideally have some related professional experience. International or cross-cultural exposure will also be highly assessed. If the undergraduate degree is from other than above, applicants are highly recommended to have taken some courses within these fields. Through the application process, applicants should demonstrate a genuine interest in and commitment to issues relating to the field of Peace and Conflict Studies and potential for future academic and professional success. This includes evidence of the applicant's motivation to work independently and capacity to design and carry out original research. Applicants may submit one additional academic or professional publication (written in English) they wish the Admissions Committee to consider. If you have a preferred academic supervisor at TUFS (PCS), please write down the professor's name on the application form. However, another professor may become your supervisor.

PCS professors: Professor SHINODA Hideaki, Professor MATSUNAGA Yasuyuki and Professor YOSHIZAKI Tomonori.

<Language Skills>

All non-native speakers of English are required to take one of the major English proficiency tests and arrange the test score to be submitted to TUFS (taken within the last two years). Generally speaking, it would be desirable to have the following minimum score to academically succeed in our program, while it is not a requirement:

Test	Preferred Minimum Score
TOEFL	PBT600 / iBT95
IELTS	7.0
TOEIC (Listening & Reading)	870
Cambridge English	180

Native speakers of English and non-native speakers of English who have obtained or are expected to obtain a degree from an English-based degree program at an institute of higher education (a university or higher) are not required to submit a test score. However, it must be clearly stated on a transcript, a certificate of (expected) graduation, or a separate certificate issued by the attended institution that the language of instruction is/was English for the said program.

^{*}Find more details on "How to Submit Your English Test Score to TUFS" on page 21.

^{*} Note: Those who would also like to apply for the SP-MEXT scholarship are required to have the English proficiency of CEFR (Common European Framework of Reference for Language) B2 level or above. Refer to page 21 for the details.

<Application Fees>

	International applicants*1	Japanese nationals AND those who do not fall into the "International applicants" category
Application fee	JPY 10,000	JPY 30,000

^{*1 &}quot;International applicants" refers to those with nationalities other than Japanese who aim to obtain/maintain the visa status of "student" upon entrance to TUFS.

IMPORTANT!!

- ✓ Applicants who are already recipients of a MEXT scholarship do not need to pay the application fee.
- ✓ Applicants who are undergoing selection for a MEXT scholarship and those applying for the SP-MEXT scholarship are responsible for paying the application fee.

The application fee must be paid before submitting application materials, either through Flywire (outside Japan), or domestically (within Japan) through a bank transfer.

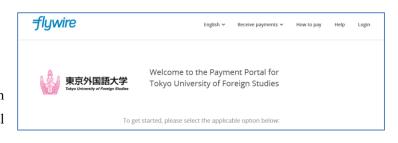

Please note that you are required to attach a print-out of the email confirming the payment or a receipt/conformation of transfer when paid through remittance or bank transfer.

< Payment from outside Japan>

Payment through Flywire

Access to https://www.flywire.com/pay/tufs/

Flywire is a system that allows easy payments from overseas eliminating operational obstacles of international transfers.

Download the Flywire instruction from here: http://www.tufs.ac.jp/english/admission/degree/pg/master/m_pcs.html

If you find any trouble using Flywire to pay the application fee, please contact Global Admissions Office (gao@tufs.ac.jp) to seek instructions.

<Payment within Japan>

Bank Transfer

Applicants residing in Japan shall transfer the application fee to the following bank account:

* All fees charged in relation to the remittance must be paid by the applicant.

Amount	JPY 10,000 or JPY 30,000
銀行	三井住友銀行
支店	東京第一支店
口座の種類	普通
口座番号	9796090
名義	東京外国語大学

< Submit Your Application Documents >

All documents listed on the "List of Application Documents" must arrive at the Admissions Office of TUFS before the specified deadline. Alterations to the content of application documents will not be allowed once they are accepted by the university. The application fee paid is non-refundable. Additionally, all materials submitted must contain only factual and honest information and include the applicant's own work only (i.e. any sort of plagiarism will immediately disqualify an applicant). An applicant who is found to have misrepresented any information or documents in applicant's application after having commenced applicant's studies at TUFS will be asked to leave the university.

Application documents will then be evaluated by faculty members to gauge the overall suitability and potential of each applicant to benefit from and contribute to graduate study in the PCS Course.

IMPORTANT!!

Please be reminded that application documents, once submitted, will not be returned for any reason. Take utmost care in submitting your academic certificates. If you need to keep the original, you must submit a true copy of such certificates.

<Interview>

An interview will be held through an internet video call.

<Announcement of Results>

Results will be announced on the website (applicants will be e-mailed the URL where they can view the results once they are available). Inquiries concerning the results are not accepted.

<Entrance Procedure>

(1) Period for the Entrance Procedure

Between late June – late July, 2024

Details will be provided to successful applicants after the Announcement of Results. Successful applicants who fail to complete the entrance procedure during the designated period will not be allowed to matriculate.

Successful applicants residing in Japan will receive a formal admission notification letter through registered postal mail along with relevant information concerning enrollment, registration, and other procedures. Those residing outside Japan will receive an e-mail containing the same information along with instructions on immigration procedures. Successful applicants residing abroad who have decided to enroll in TUFS will be requested to submit a Pledge of Entrance (stating that they will complete the entrance procedure by September 30, 2024) by a specified date in July 2024 to promise their matriculation. Details will be provided in the documents mentioned above.

(2) Admission Fee

JPY 282,000 (as of 2023 admission)

Recipients of the MEXT scholarship as of and after October 1, 2024 are exempted from the admission fee payment. Please note that successful applicants who were recipients of the MEXT scholarship at the time of application but who will lose their scholarship status as of October 1, 2024, are responsible for payment of the admission fee.

(3) Additional Information

- Details on the entrance procedure will be announced to each successful applicant.
- Successful applicants who were expected to graduate from a university at the time of application but who fail to do so will not be allowed to matriculate even if they have completed the entrance procedure.
- The payment of JPY 267,900 tuition (as of 2023 admission) for the first half of one academic year is due in October. Another payment of JPY 267,900 for the second half is due in May.
- If the tuition is revised at the time of enrollment or during the academic year, the new tuition will be charged.
- Successful applicants are required to make a payment for the Personal Accident Insurance for Students Pursuing Education and Research (PAS) and other miscellaneous fees, in addition to the admission fee, during the entrance procedure.
- Successful applicants who will continue to work or be enrolled in another school must submit a "Letter of Approval to be Enrolled in TUFS Master's Program" issued by their employer in any form of paper during the entrance procedure.

<Accommodation>

Successful applicants may apply for a room in the on-campus dormitory. Please note, however, that a room is not guaranteed, and even if a room has been allocated, the duration of residence is, in principle, limited to six months. Details on housing will be provided to successful applicants after the Announcement of the Results.

<Classes and Research Guidance for Working Adults>

To proactively promote graduate school education for working adults while maintaining its research and education standards, the Master's Program of TUFS takes the following expedient measures for employed persons (those who have worked for two years or longer at the scheduled admission) pursuant to the special measures in Article 14 of the Standards for the Establishment of Graduate Schools.

- (1) Employed persons take classes and research guidance normally in their first year and can take research guidance in their second year while working at their workplace.
- (2) Employed persons who will apply for the special measures shall, in principle, acquire 26 credits, excluding 4 credits for MA Thesis Guidance taken in the second year, of the 30 credits required for completing the program, by taking classes during normal school hours in the first year.
- (3) Employed persons shall take research guidance within a specific time or period in the second year according to the special measures.
- (4) Those who wish to apply for the special measures must submit a "Request Form for Classes and Research Guidance for Working Adults (Request Form for the Special Measures in Article 14 of the Standards for the Establishment of Graduate Schools) 社会人の授業及び研究指導の特別申請(大学院設置基準第 14 条の特例適用希望申請書)" (designated form). (Download the form from our website.)

<Consultation with Physically Challenged Applicants>

Applicants with a disability or developmental disorder, as specified in Article 22, Clause 3 of the Order for Enforcement of the School Education Act of Japan, who need special adjustment and support in accordance with the degree of their difficulty during the examination and after being admitted to TUFS must consult with GAO prior to their application. In case an applicant has become in need of such care after the deadline, contact GAO immediately.

(1) Consultation Period

Applicants for PCS Course under SP-MEXT Scholarship: Until Friday, January 5, 2024.

Applicants for PCS Course: Until Friday, April 19, 2024.

(2) What to Submit

Prepare the following documents in any form of paper. Bring them in person or send them by registered postal mail, courier service, or via e-mail to GAO. We may request a meeting with the applicant or their representative at TUFS if needed.

[Necessary Information and Documents]

- ① Applicant's name, age, and gender
- ② Applicant's address, phone number, and e-mail address
- ③ Name of school attended/attending, (expected) graduation date (year and month)
- 4 Type and degree of disability or disorder
- ⑤ Care needed during the entrance examination
- 6 Care needed after being admitted to TUFS
- 7 Submit the following documents
 - Medical Certificate written by a doctor
 - Copy of a handbook for the people with disabilities, if applicable

< Handling of Personal Information>

In accordance with the "Act on Protection of Personal Information held by Incorporated Administrative Agencies, etc." and "Regulations on Personal Information Protection by National University Corporation, Tokyo University of Foreign Studies," we handle personal information submitted by applicants at the time of application, such as an applicant's name, address, phone number, academic grades, and test scores, as follows:

- Information provided by the applicants is used for the purpose related to selection, admission, and enrollment.
- Information used in selection process such as test results can be used as data in a way that does not identify an individual to improve education and selection process in this university.
- Information of successful applicants who have completed the entrance procedure is used for the purpose related to educational matters (e.g., creating a student registry), student affairs, and collecting tuitions.
- When information is used for purposes above, some part of business can be outsourced to outside companies (contractors). In such cases, we sign contract about proper handling of personal information with contractors and provide whole or part of personal information we have to contractors to the extent necessary for business outsourced.

<Pre><Precautions>

- (1) Application fee is not refundable once application has been accepted. Documents will not be returned once application has been accepted.
- (2) If the information submitted is detected to be false or does not include facts that must be presented to TUFS, we have all the right to cancel the applicant's matriculation even after they have completed the entrance procedure.
- (3) If a successful applicant, after completing the entrance procedure, decides to decline their matriculation, they must submit a Request Form for Withdrawal from Enrollment (form provided) to the Admissions Office by Friday, September 30, 2024. If they fail to submit the request form by the deadline, they will be registered in our university system, be required to make a tuition payment, and may be subject to face other problems. Make sure to submit the request form as soon as possible.

*Obtain the Request Form from the Admissions Office as soon as you decide to withdraw.

MEXT Scholarship Program adopted under a"Special Program that conducts placements for MEXT scholarship students"

(SP-MEXT)

Important!! Those who wish to apply for SP-MEXT scholarship must check their eligibility before starting the application process. See details on page 16

To promote the recruitment of outstanding international students, the MEXT offers universities with appealing, distinguished graduate programs for international students a preferential allocation of MEXT scholarships. Programs approved by the MEXT as appealing and academically distinguished are referred to as "Special Program that conducts priority placements for MEXT scholarship students (SP)."

Since 2020, "PCS Course to Foster Professionals for Post-conflict Peacebuilding" within the Peace and Conflict Studies Course at the Graduate School of Global Studies, Tokyo University of Foreign Studies has been designated as "Special Program that conducts priority placements for MEXT scholarship students" for international students from conflict-affected countries worldwide. Outstanding applicants from countries that are currently, or have recently experienced major conflict who are also willing to engage in post-conflict peacebuilding process are invited to apply for this program.

- (4) Academic background: Applicants must satisfy the conditions for admission to either a master's or doctoral course at a Japanese graduate school. (Applicants who will certainly satisfy them at the time of enrollment are eligible.)
- (5) Majors: Applicants should apply for the field of study they majored in at university or its related field. Moreover, the fields of study must be subjects which applicants will be able to study and research at the accepting universities.
- (6) Language proficiency: Applicants must satisfy any one of the following conditions to prove that they have sufficient English language ability.
 - ①Applicants must pass or achieve scores in English language proficiency tests that correspond to B2 or higher level in the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR) at the time of application.
 - ② Applicants must complete school curriculums that meet the conditions for admission in masters' or doctoral courses at a Japanese graduate school by using English as the main language.
 - 3 Applicants are regarded by the accepting universities as having English language ability equivalent to or better than 1.
- (7) Health: Applicants who are judged by the university to have no physical or mental conditions hindering the applicant's study in Japan
- (8) Arrival in Japan: In principle, applicants must be able to arrive in Japan during the period specified by the accepting university within two weeks before and after the starting date (September or October) of the university's relevant academic term for that year.
 - Excluding cases in which MEXT deems as unavoidable circumstances, the applicant must withdraw from this scholarship program if the applicant cannot arrive in Japan by the end of the specified period above. If an applicant will arrive in Japan before or after the specified period due to personal circumstances, travel expenses will not be paid.
- (9) Visa Requirement: An applicant shall, in principle, newly obtain a "Student" visa at the Japanese diplomatic mission located in the applicant's country of nationality, and enter Japan with the residence status of "Student." Please also note that if a grantee arrives in Japan without newly obtaining a "Student" visa, scholarship payments will be cancelled. Moreover, as the Japanese government requires pre-arrival tuberculosis screening for some countries, applicants obtaining a visa shall follow guidance at the overseas establishment of Japan located in the applicant's country of nationality.
- (10) Non-Eligibility: Non-Eligibility: Those who meet any one of the following conditions are ineligible. If identified ineligible after being selected as a scholarship student, he/she must withdraw from the scholarship.

- 1) Those who are military personnel or military civilian employees;
- 2 Those who cannot arrive in Japan by the date specified by MEXT or the accepting university;
- ③ Those who are previous grantees of Japanese Government (MEXT) Scholarship programs (including those who withdraw from the scholarship program after acquisition of student status). However, this does not apply to those who wish to apply for Research Students program and meet any one of the following conditions. In addition, since the Monbukagakusho Honors Scholarship for Privately-Financed International Students does not apply to the Japanese Government (MEXT) Scholarship programs, the previous grantees can apply.
- •those who have at least three years of educational or work experience following the end of the payment of the previous scholarship and the start of this scholarship;
- the past grantees of Japanese Studies Students program who have graduated or are going to graduate from universities in their home countries, Japan-Korea Joint Government Scholarship Program for the Students in Science and Engineering Departments and Young Leaders' Program;
- •those who have obtained or are expected to obtain a degree as undergraduate students of the Japanese Government (MEXT) Scholarship programs (university recommendation/special selection).
- ④ Those who are currently also applying to another program under the Japanese Government (MEXT) Scholarship system. This includes the programs for which scholarship payments will begin in FY2024;
- ⑤ Those who are planning to receive scholarship money from an organization other than MEXT (including a government organization of the applicant's country) on top of the scholarship money provided by MEXT after the start of the scholarship payment (the acquisition of student status);
- ⑥ Those who are expected to graduate at the time of application and cannot satisfy the condition of academic background by the deadline given;
- The Holders of dual nationality at the time of application who cannot verify that they will give up Japanese nationality by the time of the arrival in Japan (the acquisition of student status);
- (8) Those who plan to, from the time of application for the MEXT scholarship program, engage in long-term research (such as fieldwork or internship) outside Japan or plan to take a long-term leave of absence from the university;
- Those who have no intention to obtain a degree.
- (11) Others: MEXT Scholarship will be granted those who are willing to contribute to mutual understanding between Japan and their home country by participating in activities at schools and communities during their study in Japan while contributing to the internationalization of Japan. They shall also make efforts to promote relations between the home country and Japan by maintaining close relations with the university attended after graduation, cooperating with the conducting of surveys and questionnaires, and cooperating with relevant projects and events conducted by the Japanese diplomatic mission after they return to their home countries.

<Note>

Unavoidable Circumstances

In the event of unavoidable or unforeseen circumstances, Japanese Government reserves the right to change or cancel the arrival date, scholarship, and contents of the application guidelines here within, at any time before or after notification of the results of the final selection.

Unavoidable Circumstances are defined as events whose effects could not reasonably be prevented or controlled by MEXT or Ministry of Foreign Affairs (including Embassies and Consulate generals of Japan) including but not limited to acts of God, acts of government (including local government, hereafter referred to as government), acts of government authorities (including limitations on travel or immigration enacted by the Japanese government or other foreign countries' government due to the event of infectious disease), compliance with law, regulations or orders, fire, flooding and torrential rain, earthquakes, acts of war (regardless of a declaration of war), revolt, revolution or rebellion, strike, or lockout.

<Others>

- Priority will be given to applicants from countries in conflict for the recommendation of SP-MEXT Scholarship.
- The recipient's academic performance will be checked every year. If a recipient's grade points calculated according to a formula specified by MEXT is found to be lower than 2.30 (full mark being 3.00), the student will lose its status as a scholarship student, and the scholarship will be canceled from then onward.
- Please note that once it is decided that you will be recommended to the MEXT, you will be asked to submit the Certificate of Health along with other MEXT scholarship application documents.

IMPORTANT!!

- ✓ Those who wish/plan to apply to the PCS Course under the SP-MEXT scholarship must notify Global Admissions Office <gao@tufs.ac.jp> to check their average grade points before starting the application procedure.
- ✓ When contacting Global Admissions Office, send the following:
 - a. your name, nationality, birthdate (YY, MM, DD)
 - b. attach your most recent academic transcript
 Those who already graduated: Academic transcript that covers all the years of the program you graduated.
 Those who are currently enrolled: most recent academic transcript that covers all the years up to point
 Transcripts should include all classes taken, credits and grades earned during each academic year and the university's grading scale. If the grading scale is not included, please obtain a document containing the revelent information from your university.
 - c. attach the copy of the English proficiency score (if applicable)

Note: Calculation of your average grade points take time. Make sure to contact the Global Admissions Office with plenty of time.

The application deadline for those who wish to enroll under the SP-MEXT scholarship is

February 5 (Mon), 2024

Please make sure that your application arrives at the TUFS Admissions Office by this date. IMPORTANT!! We do NOT accept application documents through e-mail.

<Pre>caution Regarding the Translation of Original Documents>

It is highly recommended to have the translation done or certified by a public institution, such as embassies/consulates, and educational institutions such as universities. If the public institutions in your country are unable to provide translation and authentication services, referral should be made to embassy-recommended translation services. In the absence of embassy-appointed translation services, a translated document (private document) will be accepted without authentication. Translation should be genuine, also see page 11 Precautions (2). TUFS neither proves nor confirms the contents of translated documents.

Instructions for Filling out Your Application Form

Page 1 < Legal Name>

Check your passport when filling out your name. Make sure to fill out your legal name exactly the same way as it appears on your passport. ([Surname], [Given names], capital letters, etc.)

All applicants except those whose first language is English and the non-native speakers of English who have obtained or are expected to obtain a degree from an English-based degree program at an institute of higher education (a university or higher) are required to submit a proof of English proficiency in the form of a score report of TOEFL, IELTS, TOEIC, or Cambridge English taken within the last two years. Please indicate which type of test you are providing a score report, the date the test was taken (year and month), and the overall score that you achieved.

Page 2 < Proficiency of Other Language(s)>

List other languages that you have studied or are able to communicate in and your levels of proficiency (Beginner, Intermediate, Advanced, or Fluent) in reading, writing, listening, and speaking.

Page 3 < Academic Background>

Provide names, locations (city and country), dates of attendance (year and month), duration of attendance (including long recesses like summer break, etc.), required years for graduation, degree received, and total years of duration of attendance and required years for graduation.

Page 4 < Academic Honors>

List any academic honors, awards, scholarships, or substantial research grants that you have received since you have completed your secondary education.

Page 4 < Academic Works and Publications>

List any academic works and publications, including unpublished theses or dissertations completed as part of a university degree program, published articles, papers, books, and so forth that you have authored, co-authored, or edited. For unpublished work, list the title, the language used, and the type of work (BA or MA thesis, PhD dissertation, working paper, article, book, etc.). For published work, list the title, the language used, the type of work, the name of the publication in which it officially appeared. For books, list the title, the language used, the type of work, the name of the publication, the date of the publication in which it officially appeared, and the name and the location (city and country) of the publisher. Attach a separate sheet titled "Academic Works and Publications," if necessary. Finally, if you list one or more works, submit a copy of one work with your other application materials.

Page 4 < Professional History>

Provide the following information about your three most recent employments (including internships): titles, names of organization, locations (city and country) of organizations, language used, duration of employment (year and month), and the total years of employment to date (including years not listed on the form).
