LESSONS!

Live Lesson Once a week!

This online Japanese language course offers 8 levels, from Elementary to Advanced to accommodate a wide range of learners with various levels of Japanese proficiency. Learners can aim to improve their Japanese proficiency through real-time lessons in which they can interact with instructors and classmates.

Recommended for

- Those who have already learned hiragana and katakana among university students and working people who are interested in learning Japanese in Japan and overseas.
- Those who can participate in online classes once a week.
- Those who do not have the self-confidence to pursue language learning on their own.

Course Features

- You will study online once a week with students from all over the world.
- You will learn Japanese properly and thoroughly, focusing on speaking activities.
- Submitting assignments is optional, but you can check your learning results.
