「Sustainability of regional societies」

2nd Guidance on Zoom October 21 (Wed) 11:45 – 12:30

How to apply/register will be explained

For the 2020 academic year, the Yamagata Study Tour for winter is changed to a class on exchanges with the local people using Zoom. The classes will be held on three days February 1 (Mon), 2 (Tues) and 8 (Mon), 2021. The main goals of the course is to understand the structural problems the Japanese regional societies face, and tackle with the local people towards solving the issue. Students will also collaborate with the municipalities and local businesses to come up with a detailed proposal to revitalize the regions.

☆ Participating municipalities: Sagae-shi, Takahaka-machi, Shirataka-machi, Iide-machi

☆ Class contents: Learn how the Covid-19 pandemic affected the local communities from Yamagata prefecture, each municipalities and JETRO. Share the charms of the regions TUFs students discovered with the local high school students and exchange ideas on the challenges they face.

☆ Contents of the Guidance: (1) Detailed schedule of the three days, (2) How to apply (3) How participants are fixed (4) How to register

Those who are considering of registering for the class are required to attend this guidance.

The participants of this class are highly recommended to participate in the 2021 Yamagata study tour to actually communicate with the heartwarming local people.
