

Liberal Arts Program: Social Collaboration2/Study tour 【2credits】
「Study Tour for Developing and Revitalization of Regions」(Winter)
2nd Guidance on Zoom

November 10 (Wed) 11:50~12:30 (JST) Zoom

How to apply/register will be explained

This guidance covers the course plan of the “Study Tour for Developing and Revitalization of Regions” (Winter quarter) and its application/registration procedures.

As it has become difficult to actually visit the local municipalities for this year’s winter study tour, students will visit the Yamagata Tokyo Office and tour around the shops/places related to Yamagata in Tokyo under the purpose of “Let’s find Yamagata in Tokyo”, and participate in the online activities organized by each municipalities. Students will deepen their understandings on Yamagata through researching in Tokyo, and come up with ideas to solve the obstacles that occur when trying to experience Yamagata and share it with the local people.

- (1) Students will visit places related to Yamagata in Tokyo and interview people who are originally from Yamagata.
- (2) Lecture by a person deeply involved in Yamagata, and by JETRO which will be covering the revitalization of society and promotion of overseas expansions.
- (3) Participate in each municipalities programs by breaking up into each groups.
- (4) Students will make presentations on the achievements to the local municipalities, TUFs and TUFs students and contribute to the local communities.

Schedule: Jan. 31(Mon) – Feb. 3 (Thurs) & Feb. 7 (Mon), 2022

Participating municipalities : Sagae-shi • Takahata machi • Shirataka-machi • Iide-machi
