「Study Tour for Developing and Revitalization of Regions」(Winter)
Guidance on Zoom: October 13 (Wed) 11:50~12:30

Sustainability of Regional Societies

Guidance for the “Study Tour for Developing and Revitalization of Regions” offered during the winter quarter will be held as follows. The Class schedule and how to register will be covered. The main goals of the course is to recognize the structural problems of the local societies, discuss with the local people in search for direction towards the solution, and realize the sustainable and beneficial inbound tourism.

During the course,

- (1) Japanese and international students will stay together in local regions and learn its history, culture and industry.
- (2) Discover the tourism resources, develop products, and promote overseas exports in order to revitalize the local industry. Students will prepare their proposals through interaction and exchange of opinions with local municipalities, tourism associations, and residents.
- (3) On the last day, a debriefing session will be held with the local municipalities and residents to present the achievements and give back to the local community.

Participating municipalities : Yamagata Pref., Sagae-shi, Takahata-machi, Shirataka-machi, Iide-machi

Schedule : Preparatory and post learning sessions, study tour at the local municipalities
(6 nights/7 days) (Jan. 31 – Feb. 6, 2022)
Details will be provided at the 2nd Guidance (scheduled on Nov. 10)
